REPORT.

In presenting the forty-sixth annual report of the Lancaster Town Library, 1908-1909, including those of the Librarian and of the Secretary of the Committee on Ceme-teries, with financial statements annexed, the Board of Trustees invite the attention of the citizens of Lancaster to important changes and improvements made during the year in the interior of the library building.

The erection of the new Town Hall and the removal of the office of the selectmen to quarters there made it practi-cable to convert the room vacated into a reading-room. The addition of the safe closet and entry, removal of parti-tions, etc., and general remodeling have transformed that part of the building into a commodious and well arranged reading-room, adapted to the use of students and the gen-eral public.

It is fully equipped for evening as well as day service, and almost doubles the value of the Library in many ways. Here all talking is necessarily forbidden, but quiet conver-sation will be allowed in the general delivery room, in future.

Two bequests have been received during the year, one of $500 from Mrs. Vesta A. Jewell, of which the income is to be applied to the purchase of books. The other, of $100, from Miss Frances A. Wilder, was expended in furnishings for the new reading-room.

The picture exhibitions for the year have been :

Raphael in the Vatican.	Art Museum competition.
Monumental staircases.	18th century colour prints.
Boydell's Shakespeare (2).	California.
Switzerland.	Amesbury and Whittier.
Round about Tokio.	Song of Hiawatha.
Prang platinettes.	England : the Lake District.
Fishes.	Lincoln.
Historic dress in America.

Of these, Monumental staircases and Lincoln were loaned by Miss Chandler, the Art Museums and the Fishes exhibitions were from the Woman's Educational Association, and the remainder were from the Library Art Club.

The circulation for the year shows a small increase over that of last year.

In March the Library coöperated with the effort made in Clinton in connection with the Tuberculosis exhibition. A large picture poster was made, decorated with pictures of various open-air camps and giving the date and place of the Exhibition, with a list of books and articles on tuberculosis. All of our books on the subject were displayed on a table, together with the leaflets to be given away. Although a great deal of interest was shown at the time, it has seemed not to be lasting, for although the books were kept on shelves in the reading room over three months none was ever taken out.

In July a separate heating apparatus for the Library was installed, made necessary by the tearing down of the old Town Hall, from which the building has heretofore been heated.

Beginning in October the Librarian has been giving instruction on "The use of the Library," at South Lancaster Academy to a class of the more advanced students.

In June Miss Elizabeth Avery resigned her position as assistant, which she has filled for two years to the entire satisfaction of those she served. Her place was taken by Miss Ruth H. Townsend of Bolton, who is giving acceptable and faithful service.

In order to provide more room for the shelving of books in use, we have this year withdrawn 715 volumes of public documents. They are chiefly reports of departments on subjects which are not of interest to our readers. The room thus gained will be used to relieve the crowded condition of the gallery alcoves.

Mrs. John G. Chandler has again remembered us with her most welcome yearly gift of fifty dollars for the purchase of books on the fine arts. These include this year the Crowe and Cavalcaselle History of Painting in Italy in six volumes. Vittorio Carpaccio by Molmenti, and the Pennell Life of Whistler. Mr. C. T. Harbeck of Cambridge was the donor of his Bibliography of the Navy.

With the balance of the money given us last year by Mr. John E. Thayer we have bought the History of English Furniture by Percy Macquoid, in four volumes. We have also replaced the old editions of a number of reference books such as Ploetz's Epitome, Haydn's Dictionary of Dates, and several others, with the latest editions of these useful books.

Mr. Bayard Thayer gave us early in the year the new Americana Encyclopaedia, which has been most useful.

We have had a number of gifts for the museum this year, among them a very good Indian pestle from Mr. E. O. Orpet, and found by him in a field formerly belonging to the Rufus Eager property, now a part of the E. V. R. Thayer estate. For the portrait alcove we have on deposit an oil painting of the late Jacob Fisher, loaned by Mrs. S. R. Merrick. Miss Elizabeth Merrick has deposited in the Museum a pistol, given by her father, the late S. R. Merrick, to Mr. H. S. Nourse, and carried through the Civil War by him. When the war was over Mr. Nourse returned the pistol to Mr. Merrick, whose daughter now deposits it in the Museum.

Miss Electa M. Priest of Manchester, N. H., has sent to the Library a group of daguerreotype pictures of the pupils of the school which her sister, Miss Nancy E. Priest, taught in Lancaster in 1848. These we have had photographed and framed and they now hang in the portrait alcove.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES,

in the care of lots this year and the purchase of supplies for future use.

It will be noted that the Jackson and Fisher funds drew but half a year's interest, as they were not accepted by the Town until October, 1908.

The Stearns, Lane, Flagg, Carleton, Thompson, and Wilson funds are in the permanent care of the International Trust Co., of Boston. The others are, by the votes of the Town under which they were accepted, deposited with the Town Treasurer.

Two others, the George Stratton and Benj. Gould funds, originally of $100 each, also deposited with the International Trust Co., are by order of the donors to accumulate for a time by addition of interest.

The picture exhibitions for the year have been:

American Sculpture.	Norway.
Geneva and Mont Blanc.	Pictures in Florence.
Work of Corot.	Famous Pictures.
City of Florence.	Whistler and His Work.
Architecture in Italy.	Boydell's Shakespeare.
Madonna in Art.	Old Hollandish Interiors.
Fashjons in Paris.

These were all from the Library Art Club.

This completes the first year that the Library has been put on an independent basis, as are all the other departments of the town. Out of the appropriation we are now paying for our heating, lighting and our water rates, heretofore paid by the town.

The circulation for the past year shows a decrease of nearly twenty-five hundred, about equally divided between the desk and school circulation.

In August the books in the gallery were reshelfed. We had a number of shelves made vacant by the withdrawal of public documents last year. The books on science in an alcove down stairs were moved to the gallery, and the alcove thus vacated was used to spread out the overcrowded travel section. By this means room enough has been gained to insure expansion in this section for at least five years.

The books in the delivery room, reference books and juveniles, were also reshelfed during the summer. There is room there for not more than three years expansion.

The inventory in June showed four books missing. Of these three were juvenile. Two of them were lost in the ordinary course of school circulation and the other in the library circulation. The fourth was a book on botany, also lost in the library circulation. This is the largest number of lost books we have had to report since the shelves were opened to readers. The missing books are: The Red Patriot, by Stoddard; Cinderella Owl Book, by Gordon; Field Book of American Wild Flowers, by Matthews; Century Book of Famous Americans, by Brooks.

Mr. John E. Thayer gave us last summer six sets of stereoscope views, which were put into circulation with very good results. They are kept out one week and if desired a stereoscope is lent with the pictures.

In December, Mr. John E. Thayer gave us two hundred dollars for books. Our appropriation for books was exhausted and but for this most welcome gift we should have had no new books until March.

G. P. Bradley, M. D., (U. S. N., retired) has given the library a photograph of Lincoln at Antietam, surrounded by the officers of his staff. This will be framed and hung.

From the estate of Mrs. Frances S. King the library received a number of interesting gifts. Two portraits, one an oil portrait of Mrs. Jacob Sweetser, and the other a pastel portrait of some one at present unknown, are of great interest. The pastel was sent to the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, for identification, both of its artist and subject. It is thought possible that it is an early work of Chester Harding. The identification of the subject has not been made, and it is now at the Mass. Historical Society for that purpose.

Among the smaller pictures from Mrs. King's estate were some very interesting stereoscope views of Lancaster. The set is broken, but if it could be completed, it would be a valuable addition to our Lancastriana.

Miss Bertha Parker has given to the library the fur boots worn by Mr. Felton Parker in Greenland when he was a member of the Jeannette expedition.

Mr. H. N. Otterson, of Bolton, gave us a set of the Lancaster and Bolton stage company's bills for 1826.

Two gifts to the library last year were, by mistake, left unacknowledged.

Mr. F. A. Willard gave for the museum a bullet mould, probably used in the war of 1812.

Miss Mary E. Hudson gave a drinking-cup, curiously carved, from Panama.

In July, Miss Ruth H. Townsend, who had served most acceptably as desk assistant for a year, resigned her position to enter the Library School of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn. Miss Agnes Thayer has taken her place.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES, Librarian.

CEMETERIES.

As superintendent of cemeteries Mr. John W. Bartlett has added another year to his record of satisfactory public service.

The town received from the late Mrs. Angeline V. Woodward two funds of $100 each, the income of which is to be expended for the care of the lots of her father, the late Joseph B. Moore, and of her husband, the late Frederick A. Woodward.

From the estate of Mrs. Elizabeth P. Abbott the sum of $40 was received, the income to be applied to the care of the family lot in the North Village cemetery. These funds have been accepted by the town.

The account of the receipts and expenditures is annexed.

The picture exhibitions for the year have been:

Old Hollandish interiors.	Scotland.
Mount Shasta & Lake Tahoe.	Japanese color prints.
Concord & Concord fight.	Walter Crane Fairy Tales.
Milton, Framingham and Lancaster.	Turner's Southern coast of England.
New Zealand.	Dutch & Flemish Etchings, of William Unger.
Edward VII & George V.	Medici Prints.
The Yellowstone.
Classic French Art.

The above exhibitions were from the Library Art Club, except the last, Medici Prints, which was lent by Miss Alice G. Chandler.

The circulation for this year shows an increase of 600, this increase coming entirely from the schools. The gratifying increase in our school circulation is largely due to the interest and co-operation of Mr. Erskine the Superintendent of Schools, who has promoted in every way the work that the Library is trying to do for the schools.

One phase of the daily work of the Library which makes no showing in statistics and for which no figures are kept is the reference work. It is being done constantly for pupils in the schools, for members of the various women's clubs, for town officers and very often for the strangers within our gates, this last being usually genealogical research. This past year we have kept a list of the questions asked at the desk for which immediate answers were required and a few have been selected to show the various kinds of information the Library must be able to give : construction of mono rail, statistics of crime in the U. S. ; a good explanation of the fourth dimension ; the exact date when the Ostro Goths were driven from Rome ; a good account of Japanese history since the war with Russia ; a reliable book on the construction of farm fences ; a short scientific account of the Cook-Pearry controversy ; a short history of the Hanseatic League ; date and text of the Metropolitan Water Board Act ; some definite account of Maeterlinck, not what is ordinarily given in the magazines ; material for a debate on persuasion vs. force.

At the first meeting of the Trustees for the year it was voted to open the Library on Monday afternoons, thus opening it every week day afternoon. That it was much needed is shown by the uniformly good circulation on that day.

We have had several notable gifts during the year. In the west alcove of the Museum Mr. John E. Thayer has installed a collection of New England butterflies, beautifully mounted by Denton.

The late Eugene F. Fay of Brookline gave to the Library in the late Spring a quantity of deeds, papers, photographs, etc., which had to do with Lancaster. Mr.

Fay's father was a resident of Lancaster and an official of the State Industrial School for Girls, and much of the material was connected with that institution.

We have also had given to us a daguerreotype of Capt. Anthony Lane from Miss Mary A. Townsend, and one of George H. Chace of Still River, formerly of Lancaster, from Mrs. Calvin Clark.

Other gifts to the Museum are an Indian pestle found in the excavation of the Clinton sewer beds given by James Macdonald, and an Indian gouge from Dr. George P. Bradley; nine coins from Miss Emily Whitney and two leather fire buckets from Miss Alice G. Chandler.

The re-cataloguing of the history section has proceeded at irregular intervals in the time that could be spared from routine work. Library of Congress cards are being used in this as far as they can be.

In October Miss Agnes Thayer who had served most acceptably as desk assistant left to enter upon other work and her place was taken by Miss Charlotte F. Tufts.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES, Librarian.

The picture exhibitions for the year have been:

Yosemite Valley.	Pompeii and Herculaneum.
Jamaica.	Coronation of King George.
Jean Francois Millet.	Mythological Pictures.
John Singer Sargent.	Medici Prints.
Babies in Art.	Rulers of Italy.
Naples—National Museum.	Medici Prints—Madonnas.
From Naples to Paestum.

The set on the Coronation of King George and the two sets of Medici prints were lent by Miss Chandler. The remainder were from the Library Art Club.

The circulation for the past year shows an increase of a little more than 600 over that of last year, the greater part of the increase coming from the desk circulation.

In November, plans were made for opening a deposit station of the Library at Deers horns. This section of the town is so remote from the Library that a very few of its residents are able to make use of it. Owing to an unexpected change in assistants these plans could not be carried out, but it is hoped that with the coming of spring something may be done to further this project.

Early in the year it was decided by the Trustees that the payment for the use of books by non-residents should be discontinued. A scheme of deposit, or as an alternative, the signature of a guarantor acceptable to the Librarian, was substituted and used with good results.

By the will of Mr. Nathaniel Thayer, the Library has received the sum of $5,000, the income to be used in the purchase of books.

We have had several donations for the museum during the year. Mr. George W. Howe, of South Lancaster, has given the first bill signed by him as president of the Lancaster National Bank. Mrs. George M. Morse has given a piece of the first pulpit curtain of the Unitarian Church. From Dr. George P. Bradley has come some South Sea Island curios and a Philipino flag.

There have been deposited with the Library by members of the Washburn family, two swords. Both were carried through the civil war by sons of this house, one by Gen. Francis Washburn, the other by his brother, Capt. Edward R. Washburn. Mr. and Mrs. Darius B. Scott have given to the Library the sword of Stephen A. Keyes suitably inscribed with his name and the name of the regiment in which he served. Mr. Keyes was a brother of Mrs. Scott.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES,

Librarian,

On Nov. 23d the deposit station at Deershorn's was opened, with Mrs. A. A. Estabrook of Deershorn's in charge. The School Committee has kindly given us the use of the Deershorn's schoolhouse for our purpose. A deposit of about 250 books is kept there, with constant exchanges from the main library. Readers are encouraged to send in titles of books to the assistant in charge and we endeavor as far as possible to supply the books wanted. Two magazines for circulation were asked for, the Atlantic and the American Machinist, and they seem to be well used. The hours are from 2 to 4 every Saturday afternoon, and the use made of the books would seem amply to justify the opening of the deposit station. From Nov. 23d to the 1st of February 350 books were given out, a very creditable number.

The bookcase used at Deershorn's was given to us by the First Parish Church, and Miss Chandler, one of our Trustees, sees to the carriage of the books.

In October the town was visited by a mild small-pox epidemic, chiefly affecting the students at the South Lancaster Academy. The Academy and the students had out at the time about 38 books from the Library. These the Board of Health took in charge, carefully fumigating them before they were returned to the Library. It was deemed best, however, in spite of the fumigation, not to allow the books to be returned to the collection, and they were all burned. As far as possible they will be replaced.

In the first table of statistics in this report, under "Magazines and Newspapers," it will be seen that this year we have more periodicals given us than we subscribe for. It seems not generally to be understood how much the attractiveness of our reading tables is due to the very pleasant Lancaster custom of passing on to the Library after reading, periodicals that we do not subscribe for and that we should otherwise have to do without. In addition to this, several good friends of the Library subscribe to certain English periodicals for us, without which our tables would lose much in distinction and interest. This custom of passing periodicals on to the Library prevails in Lancaster as it does in very few places and is deserving of especial mention.

As in every library, the supply of new books falls far short of the demand, especially and perhaps chiefly in fiction. Unless the prices of books decrease instead of increasing as they have for the past five years, we shall be obliged to buy fewer books instead of more. So perhaps it may not be out of place here to call attention to the fact that our bookstack and the alcoves and gallery hold a collection of nearly 38,000 books quite as good, and in many cases far better than those on the new-book rack. They have many of them stood the test of time better than the newer ones ever can, and when the new-book rack seems empty the stack may yield unexpected treasure.

We have this year bought the new two-volume Rand-McNally atlas, a much-needed addition to our reference books. We have also replaced one of our sets of Thackeray with a small edition, pleasant to hold and with print that makes comfortable reading. The necessity for the replacement of such standard books and the constant need of new books of reference makes a drain on library funds often overlooked by the readers.

In the preparation of the historical pageant given on July 4th, the Library was able to give a certain amount of aid to those engaged in planning it, and our bulletin board was turned over to the pageant-master, Mr. Joseph Lindon Smith, for use in displaying his sketches of costumes for the players. We shall preserve in permanent form as good a record of the pageant as we can make, and to this end we have asked for contributions of a copy of every photograph taken. These, together with the sketches of the costumes made by Mr. Smith and the various accounts from newspapers and magazines will make, we trust, an interesting record for the future.

Through the generosity of Miss Chandler we were able to engage Miss Ellen Moynihan of Worcester to tell stories to the children for an hour on alternate Saturday mornings, beginning the 4th of January. We are again indebted to the kindness of the School Committee in allowing us the use of the High School room for this purpose, as the Library has no room large enough. Our purpose in having stories told is to create a taste for better reading, and to do something toward developing the imagination, a faculty which in the modern child seems to be in danger of complete atrophy.

The Library has entered into an arrangement this year with the State School whereby two houses have the privilege of drawing books for the use of the girls. The inmates of the Almshouse are again having the use of books from the Library through the kindness of Miss Mary B. S. Bailey, who selects them and carries them back and forth, a service for which we are very grateful.

We have had a gift this year from Mrs. C. C. Russell of nearly one hundred bound volumes of music, the most of it the works of the standard composers. This collection is now on the shelves, together with the music known as the Bartol collection. It is to be hoped that those interested in music will make use of these books. We have now the nucleus of what could be made a good working collection of music, should there be any indication that such a collection would be used. Miss Mary E. Fisher of Roxbury, once a resident of Lancaster, has sent us a box of unbound music which belonged to her sister, Miss Ellen Fisher, long a music teacher in Lancaster. This we hope may be bound and put in condition for use. From the U. S. Treasury has come a set of Confederate money taken by the Federal authorities at the end of the Civil War. Mr. Malvrene Card of Leominster has given us two curious old bills, one of Confederate money, the other issued by a private corporation.

Mr. John E. Thayer has given us a set of 39 bound volumes of Puck. These volumes contain the work of our best political cartoonists and caricaturists for a period of thirty years, and form a valuable contribution to the political history of the time.

We have had a number of gifts of local interest this year.

Miss Mary B. S. Bailey gave us six specimens of coachlace made by her mother, Sophronia Fuller, in the old coachlace factory. These we have had mounted and framed and marked, and they hang in the Museum with the framed patterns of the old pulpit curtains given last year.

Mrs. Dennis Wheeler of Leominster gave us from the estate of her aunt, Miss Sarah Carter of Lancaster, a beautiful framed sampler worked by Miss Carter's mother, Polly Warner. From the same estate came photographs of Miss Carter's grandparents, Samuel Carter and his wife, Dilly Merriam Carter, and a photograph of Mrs. Nathaniel Thayer, the wife of the Rev. Nathaniel Thayer. From the estate of Mrs. Frances Young came photographs of some of the later generations of the Thayer family. Miss Elizabeth Chandler has given us some papers and documents from the estate of her great uncle, Capt. Samuel Ward.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES,

Librarian.

The reading-room received this year a noteworthy addition, a beautiful black walnut bookcase with an upper section for the display of pictures, the gift of Miss Alice G. Chandler. It fills the east wall of the room and gives grace and beauty to what was a very bare spot. On the shelves of the bookcase is a selection of books from each class in the library, the intention being to put there the most attractive and interesting of the older books with the hope that thereby some forgotten worthies may again come into their own. In the case at the top Miss Chandler is displaying her collection of the Medici prints. These pictures with their beautiful coloring, are not the least of the charm of the room.

In connection with the beautifying of the reading room the Library collection of samplers was in August taken from the Museum, where it had been very inadequately displayed and hung on the north wall of the reading room.

The circulation shows an increase over that of last year of about 4,800, but last year's circulation was below the average on account of the various epidemics with which we were afflicted. Of this increase, about half is natural gain, the other half comes from the branch at Deers horns, which gave out 2,237 books, a per capita circulation in that district of 10.6. The gain in the school circulation was about 1,000, the largest part of which comes from the North Lancaster schools.

In the garden competition instituted last year the Library endeavored to supply gardening literature both in the form of books and of plant and seed catalogues. It also acted as a distributing point for the Garden Competition Report.

We have received from Miss Ellen Otis a number of interesting articles as gifts, a set of candle moulds, a foot warmer and some of the embroidery designs and stamps used by her aunt, Miss Mary R. Fay.

From Mr. John E. Thayer we have received the Child's Book of Knowledge in twenty volumes as well as many other books and periodicals, and from Miss Alice G. Chandler, twelve volumes of the Black color book series. Miss Mary W. Bartol has given us about fifty miscellaneous books which filled many gaps in our collection.

The statistics this year show a falling-off both relative and absolute. The report, in accordance with the new law, ends with December thirty-first, thus giving figures for only eleven months. The circulation statistics show a decrease for the Main Library but an increase for the Deershorns Branch, which has given out more books in eleven months this year than it did last year in twelve. The decrease at the Main Library is partly in the desk circulation, but mainly in the schools, which show a regrettable tendency toward a decreased use of the Library as a working factor.

The difference of more than two hundred and fifty books between the accessions of this year and last is owing chiefly to the difference in our income. Certain of the Library's investments shared in the business depression of last year and failed to pay dividends. The most obvious economy was in the buying of books, and consequently our readers have been given the opportunity of finding out in a small way what it would be like to have a library with the income of the average library in a town of two thousand inhabitants. As matters can not be expected to improve much for several years there will probably be less use of the new book rack by readers and more use of the stack and alcoves.

As the purchase of fewer new books made less work in their preparation it was decided to make use of the time thus gained to do some extra cataloguing. The books in the gallery, which are public documents both of Massachusetts and the United States, are being re-catalogued with Library of Congress cards. At the same time a revision of certain sections of the catalogue is being made.

However unfortunate we have been as to income, we have been very fortunate in gifts. From the estate of Miss Charlotte Taylor Lane we have received the sum of $1,000 to form a fund in memory of her grandfather, Jonas Lane and her father, Jonas Henry Lane, to be called the Lane fund, the income to be used in the purchase of valuable books. From Mr. John E. Thayer we have received a copy of the previously unknown edition of the Rowlandson Narrative, published in Boston, in 1770 by Fowle. From the same source we have received a copy of Jones's Old Silver of American Churches, a very beautiful work which we should not have felt justified in buying from Library funds, but which it is appropriate that we should have, as it contains a record of the old silver of the First Parish Church.

Mr. T. Edward Wilder of Chicago, has given to the Library an armchair, made after an old model, from the wood of the Great Elm. It appropriately stands in the new reading room, for it was with the bequest of Miss Fanny Wilder that this room was furnished.

We have had one or two unexpected gifts from among those who use the Library as transients, the gifts taking the form of money to be expended in one book, as an expression of the pleasure the donors have had in using our books. With these gifts we have bought: John Lavery and his Work, by Shaw; Etchings, by Wedmore and The Great Illusion, by Angell.

Mrs. Doel Sanders has given us Dr. J. S. L. Thompson's walking-stick, to be added to the Museum collection. Mr. Francis H. Sawyer has given a silver watch and seal which were bought by Deacon Jonas Lane in Paris, in 1784. Miss Mary E. Fay of South Lancaster, has sent a number of things from the Fletcher house, a tin oven, a foot warmer and some other articles.

Respectfully submitted.

The year's work has been satisfactory from several points of view, but especially from that of our work with the schools. With the permission of the School Committee and the cordial co-operation of the Principal of the High School and the teacher of English, a course in the use of the Library was given to the four classes of the High School, beginning the first week in October and lasting five weeks. The course was given in the delivery room at the Library, and each lesson consisted of note-taking and practical work with the catalogue, book shelves and indexes. The time for it was taken from the English course and counted points for the pupils in that course. They were interested and did good work, and that they were benefitted is shown by the way in which they now use the facilities of the Library for themselves without asking help at the desk. For the future, only the entering class will be given this course.

In November, the Librarian gave an address to the students of the South Lancaster Academy on the use of their library. The Academy is collecting a good working library for the use of the school and is also making a thorough use of our Library, especially in the Departments of History and English.

We have suffered this year from the same shortage of income as last year. Consequently, we have bought fewer books—more in number than last year, for this report covers a full year as that did not, but not so many, nor such good ones on the whole as the same amount would have bought ten years ago. In 1905, we spent approximately the same amount for books, but we bought over a hundred more. And we bought more expensive ones, for we bought over 20 books costing $5.00 and over. This year we bought 9. In 1905, we were paying an average of $1.00 for our adult fiction; in 1910, $1.08, and in 1915 we are paying an average of $1.16. In ten years, therefore, our bill for fiction has increased about sixteen per cent, and we are getting no better books and fewer of them. And in the books for younger readers we are no better off. In 1905, the books for the older boys and girls averaged about 90 cents apiece; in 1910, about 98 cents, and in 1915, $1.11. So in 1915 we are paying more for such books as the Barbour series for boys and the Gilchrist series for girls, than we paid five years ago for our adult fiction. And the prices for these books are still rising. What this rise in prices means to the average country library with a fixed—or diminishing—income, is not hard to see. One thing it surely means—that in order to supply the demand for current fiction both for adult and juvenile readers, we shall be obliged to go without the more expensive books of travel, biography and the fine arts—such as we have had in the past, and which are essential if the Library is to be kept up to its old standard.

Though the circulation at the Main Library has shown a good increase over last year's, the most marked increase is at the Deershorns Branch. There they have given out almost 2600 books, an increase over last year's circulation of more than 300, and a per capita of nearly 13. The per capita of the whole town is 7.4.

The American Library Association in its report of last year asked for a standardization of library reports, with the end in view of making comparative statistics possible. In accordance with that request we have this year added certain details to our report.

We are greatly indebted this year, as in past years, to the Worcester Free Public Library for a generous use of its books through the Inter Library Loan.

In November, Miss Wells, who had been desk assistant for two years, was appointed to a position in the Children's Department of the Seward Park Branch of the New York Public Library. That she is doing there the same good work she did here is indicated by her appointment in January to a position in the Bronx Branch.

From Miss Elizabeth F. Merrick we have received a daguerreotype of Mrs. Caleb Symmes; from Mrs. Alfred W. Blood, the apothecary's scales long used by Dr. Lincoln and a piece of brick purporting to be from the chimney of the Rowlandson house; from Mr. E. W. Carr, a copy of the Clinton Journal for August, 1852, and from the Rev. O. E. Duerr, an historical and geographical chart of Lancaster.

There has been deposited in the Museum, as a loan, by Mr. Frank Osgood Johnson of Bethany, Connecticut, a gun, formerly belonging to David Osgood, a resident of Lancaster, 1798-1874.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES,

Librarian.

The year's activities have been chiefly routine. In April the Library observed the Shakespeare ter-centenary by an exhibition of pictures, books and some other objects of interest lent by various friends of the Library.

In March we ceased having the lists of new books published in the Clinton Item, and have since had a small "List of New Books" printed to be given out at the desk. The change has been a gratifying success.

We have also issued two reading lists this year, one on Gardening and one on Child Study, in connection with the work of the Parent-Teachers' Association. These lists, printed on postal cards, were mailed, in the one case to the members of the Garden Club, in the other to the parent or guardian of every child in the Lancaster schools, and to all those supposed to be interested in education, the teachers and the School Committee. The gardening list was used almost not at all, the child study list by a very few, probably by not more than half-a-dozen.

During the summer the Bartol collection of music was accessioned and put in order for use. This collection, formerly a part of the musical library of Mr. Horace V. Bartol, was deposited here by his brother, Dr. George M. Bartol, and now comes to the Library from Dr. Bartol's estate. It consists chiefly of church music in English editions, and should be of use to our church organists. This music, together with that given us several years ago by Mrs. C. C. Russell, gives us the starting point of a useful music collection.

In connection with the centenary of the building of the fifth meeting-house of the First Parish Church the Library made an exhibition of objects of local interest, and also held a picture exhibition at the Town Hall of photographs of Lancaster houses.

A beginning has been made on the re-arrangement of the portrait alcove of the Museum. Brass name plates have been put on the frames, the portraits re-grouped and a catalogue of the collection is to be made.

For a year of such great industrial activity our circulation shows a very small decrease, only a little over 300, distributed about evenly among the desk circulation at the main Library, at Deers horns and the school circulation.

The entering class of the High School was given the usual course of lessons on the use of the Library, and they have been making practical use of the work through the winter.

In September, Miss Edith N. Snow, the desk assistant, left us to enter college, to our great regret. Her place was taken by Miss Edna E. Holden of Shirley. During the summer Miss Lulu Davis of Cumberland Mills, Maine, took two months of apprentice training.

The Library has received from Mr. Herbert Parker thirty volumes of French historical memoirs, and from Mr. John E. Thayer the twelve volumes of the works of Luther Burbank for the Lancaster collection. The Times History of the War, given by Mr. William S. Patten, has now reached the eighth volume, and is our most valuable illustrated record of the Great War.

Mrs. Calvin Childs has given us a gun, taken from a battlefield of the Civil War, which has in the hollow of the butt a letter and a tin-type. Efforts have been made through letters published in southern newspapers to find some one to whom this might be of interest, but so far without success.

Mr. E. W. Carr has given for the Museum a buttonhole cutter, such as was used seventy-five years ago, and Mr. Walter Maynard an old fluting iron, and an early copy of the Clinton Item.

Respectfully submitted,

VIRGINIA M. KEYES.
